Day 2 - Sunday
Dubrovnik, Korčula

Breakfast, Lunch

The far south of Croatia holds many gems. Start with an optional walking tour * of Dubrovnik, also known as the Pearl of the Adriatic or the King's Landing. Whatever you might consider to be the town's main drawcard, Dubrovnik's mighty city walls and its courteous spirit will swiftly transport you back in time to when this was an independent republic that successfully rivaled the Venetian Republic. Its outpost is your next stop, with your journey over interrupted only by a refreshing dip in the Elaphite Islands. You realize Korčula * was a Venetian stronghold as soon as you lay your eyes on the many lion statues that lurk at you from the town's facades and gates, intertwined with some of the most outstanding stonework you get to see on the Adriatic coast. Overnight in Korčula.

* Dubrovnik Town Tour with a coach transfer from Dubrovnik Port (Gruz) to the Old Town - optional walking tour package
* Korcula town walking tour - optional walking tour package
Day 3 - Monday
Hvar, Milna (Brač Island)

Breakfast, Dinner

Enjoy breakfast with a view and a morning sail to Hvar, officially the sunniest of 1200 Croatian islands. This jet-set fave is also the island with the most UNESCO-listed heritage in the entire world, consider joining our optional guided tour *. Leaving Hvar in the late afternoon we will set sail into the sunset. This evening we will be staying in Milna on the island of Brac.

* Hvar Walking tour - optional walking tour package
Day 4 - Tuesday
Split, Milna (Brač Island)

Breakfast, Dinner

After a short sail we will reach Split. Diocletian Roman emperor spared no expense for the construction of a sumptuous residence, importing the best quality marble, sphinx and columns. The original palace was modified by its new inhabitants during the Middle Ages, but making it even more beautiful and what it is today: the city's living heart. Its narrow streets hide passageways and courtyards, some deserted and eerie, others lively and animated by the music from bars and cafes, or by the everyday life of its residents; take an optional walking tour of Split * with our expert guide. In the afternoon you can take an optional trip to the mainland, get stunned by the dramatic rocks backing the lovely settlement of Omis right at the mouth of the Cetina River. Consider exploring the Cetina River Canyon in a boat excursion  Overnight in Split.

* Split Walking tour - optional walking tour package
 Optional excursion: Cetina river
Day 5 - Wednesday
Split, Šibenik, Trogir

Breakfast, Lunch

Leaving Split will be Trogir’s first stop, a small Dalmatian town listed on UNESCO’s List of World Cultural Heritage, located on the island and squeezed in between the mainland and the larger island of Ciovo. Except for the green parks the entire island is occupied by spectacular constructions of stone-houses, palaces, churches, monasteries, towers, walls etc. You will have free time to pay for a visit to the main attraction in Trogir * - the Cathedral of St. Lawrence which is probably the finest example of sacral architecture in Croatia. The final destination of the day will be Sibenik, where you can take an optional walking tour *. Stroll with your guide through the narrow and steep streets; pass by the most important monument, the Gothic-Renaissance Cathedral of St. James is located in the main town square. By its beauty, construction features and style characteristics, it represents not only the major and most valuable monument of the town’s architectural heritage, but it is also a unique monument of European sacral architecture, included on the UNESCO World Heritage List since 2001. Overnight in Sibenik.

Day 6 - Thursday  Šibenik, Zadar

Breakfast, Lunch

This morning, you will experience the Northern exposure of Dalmatian beauties and history. Sailing between numerous islands in the late afternoon our cruise will reach our final port, Zadar, where upon arrival you can take an optional Zadar walking tour * through the Roman Forum from the 2nd century BC, passing by the 9th century pre-Romanesque church of St. Donatus as well as St. Anastasia church. Overnight in Zadar.

* Zadar walking tour - optional walking tour package
Day 7 - Friday
Zadar, Plitvice Lakes NP

Breakfast, Captain's dinner

When sailing along the Croatian coast, surpassing the beauty around you may seem like an impossible task. Probably so, but there are sites on the Croatian mainland that surely parallel it, such as the Plitvice Lakes. Situated in a thick forest, the Plitvice Lakes are considered one of the most beautiful natural phenomena in the world. Sixteen lakes, connected by 92 waterfalls, cascade through its picturesque surrounding. The Plitvice Lakes were declared a National Park in 1949, and since 1979 they have been listed on the UNESCO World Natural Heritage List. The park's attractions also include several caves and a wide variety of flora and fauna. A guided tour of the park lasts for about three and a half hours, including both a boat ride and a walking tour. Join us and enjoy the magical beauty of lakes and waterfalls creating spectacular scenery.
Day 8 - Saturday
