Day 1 - Friday

Opatija, Rab

Lunch, Tasting

Departure at 13h towards Rab, known as the "island of love" with an old town of the same name. Join on guided city tours and see the medieval walls and the famous four towers (and maybe climb one of them later!) Together With palaces, churches and squares. There's a slight Montmartre feel with many artists painting and exhibiting out on the streets. Legend has it that local nuns created a special Rab cake for a visiting Pope and we will sample this after the tour. forever secret.

Day 2 - Saturday

Rab, Zadar

Breakfast, Lunch, Tasting

After breakfast we head for Zadar, the oldest university town in Croatia with an amazing heritage and where history looks you in the eyes: The Roman Forum from the 1st century, St Donat church from the 9th century-the most famous medieval Basilica and the city's symbol, the mighty city walls, over 30 churches. Muses and former noble families' palaces and villas in the old town. In recent years Zadar has added a touch of cool with the famous Sea Organs and "Greeting to the Sun" light installations, both located on the city's waterfront. Watch the fabulous sunset from here. Guided city tour.

Day 3 - Sunday

Krka Waterfalls, Šibenik, Zadar

Breakfast, Dinner, Tasting

Wine and waterfalls! Cruise towards Skradin then board our coach. First stop is the famous Bibich winery for wine tasting and light tapas lunch. Back in Skradin we walk through the Krka Waterfalls National Park and visit "Skradinski Buk". Jaw droppingly beautiful, this is the most popular part of the waterfall area. There are 17 waterfalls, with cascades up to 100 m wide, and the Krka river tumbles 45.7 meters. A never-to-forget experience is swimming under the falls so bring your swimming things and enjoy Šibenik, is almost in the very central part of Croatia's Adriatic coast and is our afternoon destination. Explore the glorious old town, the cultural monuments and possibly the most famous one here, the UNESCO listed Cathedral of St James. Wander and discover the historic core and waterfront. Some good boutique shopping too. Dinner on board.

Day 4 - Monday

Split, Šibenik

Breakfast, Lunch

We continue south to Split, Croatia's second largest city where Roman Emperor Diocletian built himself a retirement palace now under UNESCO protection. Split waterfront is a happening place and there's a buzz along the beautiful wide promenade. A local guide meets us on arrival for a walk through the heart of the bustling old town and the market.

Day 5 - Tuesday

Metković, Split

Breakfast, Lunch, Captain's dinner

Today we discover one of the last remaining wetland deltas in Europe. We cruise to Metković, on the banks of the river Neretva after which the delta is named. Here, mandarins grow by the water channels and we take a barge ride to explore the groves. There's a delightful, "time warp" feeling like nowhere else on the coast. Narona archeological museum in Vid, which we visit, was formally inaugurated in 2007 as the first „in situ“ museum in Croatia exhibiting the remains of a Roman temple. Narona holds remains of a Roman temple – the Augusteum – and seventeen monumental marble sculptures of Roman emperors and their family members. , Romans once sailed, and, according to legend, the pirates of Neretva planned their raids on enemy galleys. Captain's dinner with live entertainment on board scheduled for this evening.

Day 6 - Wednesday

Korčula, Metković

Breakfast, Lunch

Departure towards Korčula, an island best known as the birthplace of Marco Polo, the famous explorer. Covering much of the island are the distinct, almost black pine forests so Korčula is also known as "the Black Island". Dubrovnik, as it also encased by medieval stone ramparts and towers. The famous Moreska sword dance-fight is thought to have come to the island when the Moors raged through this region and there are regular performances. A local guide will lead you through the old town where tiny streets are designed in a fish bone pattern for a very good reason that you will hear about! Lots of simple konobas, restaurants and cool cocktail bars for chill out time.

Day 7 - Thursday

Dubrovnik, Korčula

Breakfast, Lunch

There is no better way to catch first sight of famous Dubrovnik than from the sea and this is our final destination – Dubrovnik. It is one of the few walled cities on the sea in the world. Writer George Bernard Shaw described it as “heaven on earth”. We cruise alongside the old city walls for a true perspective of the majesty of this place. Lunch is served on deck as we head for Gruz harbor to dock. Once moored, we transfer to the old town for a guided walking tour of In your own time, why not walk those famous ramparts (all 1940 meters long!), or take the cable car from the Old Town to Srđ mountain for fabulous views of the city itself and the Elaphiti Islands (ticket included) .If you want to explore any of the museums in more detail, such as Sponza or Rectors, now is the time.

Day 8 - Friday

Dubrovnik

Breakfast

After breakfast it 's goodbye from Dubrovnik, your crew and your new friends- for now at least. So many people return to travel again with Katarina Line on this amazing blue Adriatic wonder.
