Early in the morning, while breakfast is served, we set sail for Skradin, a small town located on the river Krka, just north of Šibenik. Skradin is an attractive tourist destination with an authentic Mediterranean-style old town, just downriver from the breath-taking waterfalls of the Krka National Park. Skradin has one of the most beautiful marinas in Croatia. In the afternoon, we will embark on a sightseeing tour of the magnificent Krka National Park, which delights with its attractions. After the tour, you will visit Pakovo Selo where you will experience authentic Croatian cuisine, find out why the Driš prosciutto is considered a delicacy and what is so tempting about dishes baked "under the bell". Overnight in Skradin.

Breakfast, Lunch

In the morning we leave Skradin and, after a short sail down the Krka river canal, we reach Šibenik, a city of exceptional cultural and historical sights, an unavoidable point on the tourist map of Croatia. In Šibenik, a local guide will take us on a sightseeing tour after which you'll have a bit of time to enjoy Šibenik at your own pace. Around noon, we return to the ship and set sail for the beautiful island of Zlarin, inhabited since antiquity and known for the red corals growing along its shores. On our way to Zlarin, we will stop for a swim in one of many picturesque bays dotting the coast. After arrival in the afternoon hours, you will have ample time to enjoy the quaint town of Zlarin. The town, famous for its long tradition of fishing, is built against a steep hill and offers some of the most spectacular sunsets on the Adriatic. With lunch on board and a swim stop along the way, we arrive in Komiža in the early afternoon. The island of Vis, formerly a major naval base, was closed to tourists from 1945 until the breakup of Yugoslavia in the 90's, which helped preserve the authentic appearance of its villages. In the afternoon you will have time to enjoy Komiža at your own pace and enjoy everything it has to offer. Overnight in Komiža.

Day 5 - Wednesday

Komiža, Biševo (Blue Cave), Korčula

After the Blue Cave, we set sail for Korčula, stopping along the way for a swim. Lunch will be served on board. In the afternoon we arrive at Korčula, the birthplace of the famous explorer Marco Polo. Our local guide will take you on a unique tour of the old town of Korčula. You will hear many interesting stories and legends about the city and the life of Marco Polo, the most famous son of Korčula. The casual approach to discovering the history and culture of Korčula will surely delight you. In the evening, we suggest you enjoy one of Korčula's many exquisite restaurants. Overnight in Korčula.
